The determined refusal of the company's officials to meet Arthur, Sargent, Ingram, Clark and other workmen's offi-cers in their official capacity, and the printed reply to their demands for a reiress of grievances, refusing everything asked for, has exasperated the workmen, who declare that unless the company manifests a disposition to compromise matters the system will be tied up from its easter2 to its western terminus.

The company's officials say they do not expect and neither do they fear a strike, but are prepared for anything. The Coroner's Inquiry Shows that the Elliotts Were the Murderers. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 25 .- The awful ragedy in which W. L. Hughes and Al C. Osborn lost their lives and seven others wounded, is the the sole topic of conversation here.

A large number of witnesses have been examined by Coroner Eagan in the in-quest on the bodies of the two murdered men. The majority agree upon the statement that Patsy J. Elliott killed Osborn, and that Hughes and the inof-fending bystanders were struck by stray bullets.

Nearly all the witnesses swear that W. J. Elliott began the fusilade by firing upon Osborne, who stood with his hands in his pockets less than 10 feet away, and that the first shot took effect in Osborn's chin.

The Elliotts are locked in C corridor The Elliotts are locked in C corridor together, but not in cells. They had many callers, among the first being Father Mulhearn of the Cathedral, who called in his ecclesiastical capacity. Their attorneys visited them also. The charge is still suspicion, though it may at any time be changed to murder. The police have established beyond a doubt that Bill Elliott fired the first shot, and they think that both the Elliotts shot Osborne. It is impossible to see the Osborne. SECRETARY FOSTER

SENATOR CAMERON'S OPPOSITION

No Serious Attempt to Defeat the Confirmation of the New Secretary.

Committee-The Woman's Council.

Senator Don Cameron did not attempt in executive session to defeat the con firmation of the nomination of Mr. Foster to be Secretary of the Treasury. The report that he did so grew out of the fact that Mr. Cameron in conversation announced his enmity to Mr. Foster and said, in a casual way, that he would like to see him defeated. The man who did postpone action on the nomination in executive session was Senator Teller who acted merely in a perfunctory way in order to make known the opposition of the silver men to the selection of a man holding Mr. Foster's financial views. The family of the new Secretary of the Treasury will be a decided acquisition to the official circle. An intimate friend of and their home life has always been particularly delightful. She is a careful housekeeper, and is devoted first of all to her home and family. Although of a re-tiring disposition, she has always yielded to the social demands imposed by reason of Mr. Foster's official positions, and she is well qualified to maintain the dignity of a position in the Cabinet circle.

A wicked man out west, who had neglected to insure his life, being on his deathbed, wished to consult some proper person regarding his future state:so his friends sent for an insurance agent. As soon as the latter called, he recognized the man as one whom he had often tried to insure for his family's sake, but who was obdurate and deaf to his appeals, so he said to him, "My friend, it is its late: What you want is a Fire Insurance Agent." "Mora!" Don't let this be the case with you, but come to my office and get a Fire, Life or Accidental Insurance at the lowest figures. H. S. Scoville.
